Michael Comeskey of Star was formally appointed to the post of Secretary-Treasurer and Secretary of the Board by the Directors of Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District at the Board meeting Tuesday (Aug 4).

It marks the first time in 67 years that the District has named anyone other than a NMID employee to the Secretary/Treasurer position. Daren R Coon retired from these offices at the same meeting. Coon served 44 years with NMID, the last 32 as Secretary Treasurer.

Comeskey comes to NMID from a position as Water Renewal Capital Improvement Program Manager with the City of Boise Public Works Department.

Comeskey holds a Master of Business Administration from Boise State University and a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Washington State University. He grew up in Washington state and has lived in the Treasure Valley for 13 years. He is married with two sons, ages 12 and 10.
