Clinton C. Pline of Nampa will serve another three-year term as Director of the Nampa Precinct for the valley's largest irrigation district after being reelected in the recent election, the Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District announced.

Pline, the incumbent, defeated Susan Wonnacott by a total of 51 votes – 102-51 – in the balloting. His election victory was formally certified by the NMID Board of Directors at its November 19, 2019 meeting.

The Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District is a water storage, conveyance and distribution system founded in 1904. The District supplies irrigation water to some 69,000 acres of farmland, residential and commercial lands including pressurized irrigation for more than 17,000 individual parcels of land, including 479 subdivisions in Ada and Canyon counties. More information about the District is available at the NMID website – www.nmid.org.
