Donald Barksdale has been declared re-elected as Director of the Boise Precinct 1 of the Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District after the November 7th election, officials with the District have announced.

Barksdale, the incumbent in the post, defeated Graham Paterson. Barksdale will serve a three-year term. He was first elected to the NMID Board of Directors in 2014.

Barksdale was declared the winner after the NMID Board certified the election results at its November 21 meeting.

The certified results show that Barksdale received 289 votes while Paterson received 181 votes. Barksdale will be officially sworn in to the Boise Precinct Director post at a board meeting on Jan. 2, 2018.

The Nampa & Meridian Irrigation District is a water storage, conveyance and distribution system founded in 1904. The District supplies irrigation water to some 69,000 acres of farmland, residential and commercial lands including pressurized irrigation for more than 16,000 individual parcels of land in Ada and Canyon counties.
